

JOIN IN REGINA'S
Welcome to the
KING and QUEEN
MAY 25-1939

Souvenir Programs will be distributed exclusively by the Associated Canadian Travellers

REGINA

MAJESTIES

For three days Regina will play host to the tens of thousands of visitors who will come to join in the welcome to the King and Queen.

For them the Royal Visit Committee and the citizens of Regina have planned lavish and unusual entertainment features, unusual in interest, diversified in appeal, and in keeping with the occasion.

It is the hope of the Royal Visit Committee that this folder will give prospective visitors a glimpse of the thrills in store for them. Additional copies of this folder may be procured on request by writing The Royal Visit Committee, Regina, Saskatchewan.

3 Day Celebrations Promise Visitors a Happy Holiday

MAY 24

Afternoon—PAGEANT and CARNIVAL, Exhibition grounds. EVENING—Flash William's THRILL SHOW, Exhibition Grounds; CARNIVAL, Exhibition Grounds; BOXING TOURNAMENT, Stadium, Exhibition Grounds. Theatres, Dances, etc.

MAY 26

Huge AIR SHOW, with Capt. Art Davis and his All American Aces, to be held at Air Port, in the afternoon. Theatres, dances, etc. Visit Regina's points of interest; Parliament Buildings, R.C.M.P. Barracks, etc.

MAY 25

Their Majesties arrive in Regina, Royal Procession, covering 13½ miles. PAGEANT and CARNIVAL, Exhibition Grounds, afternoon and evening. Huge fireworks display following evening presentation of pageant.

SPECTACULAR

See Their Majesties from a Grandstand seat

RESERVED SEATS
NOW ON SALE

May 24, Matinee 50c (rush seats only)
May 25, Matinee } all seats reserved
Evening } $1.00 — 75c
(tax included)

Write or wire for reservations,
Royal Visit Committee, Regina,
Saskatchewan

PAGEANT

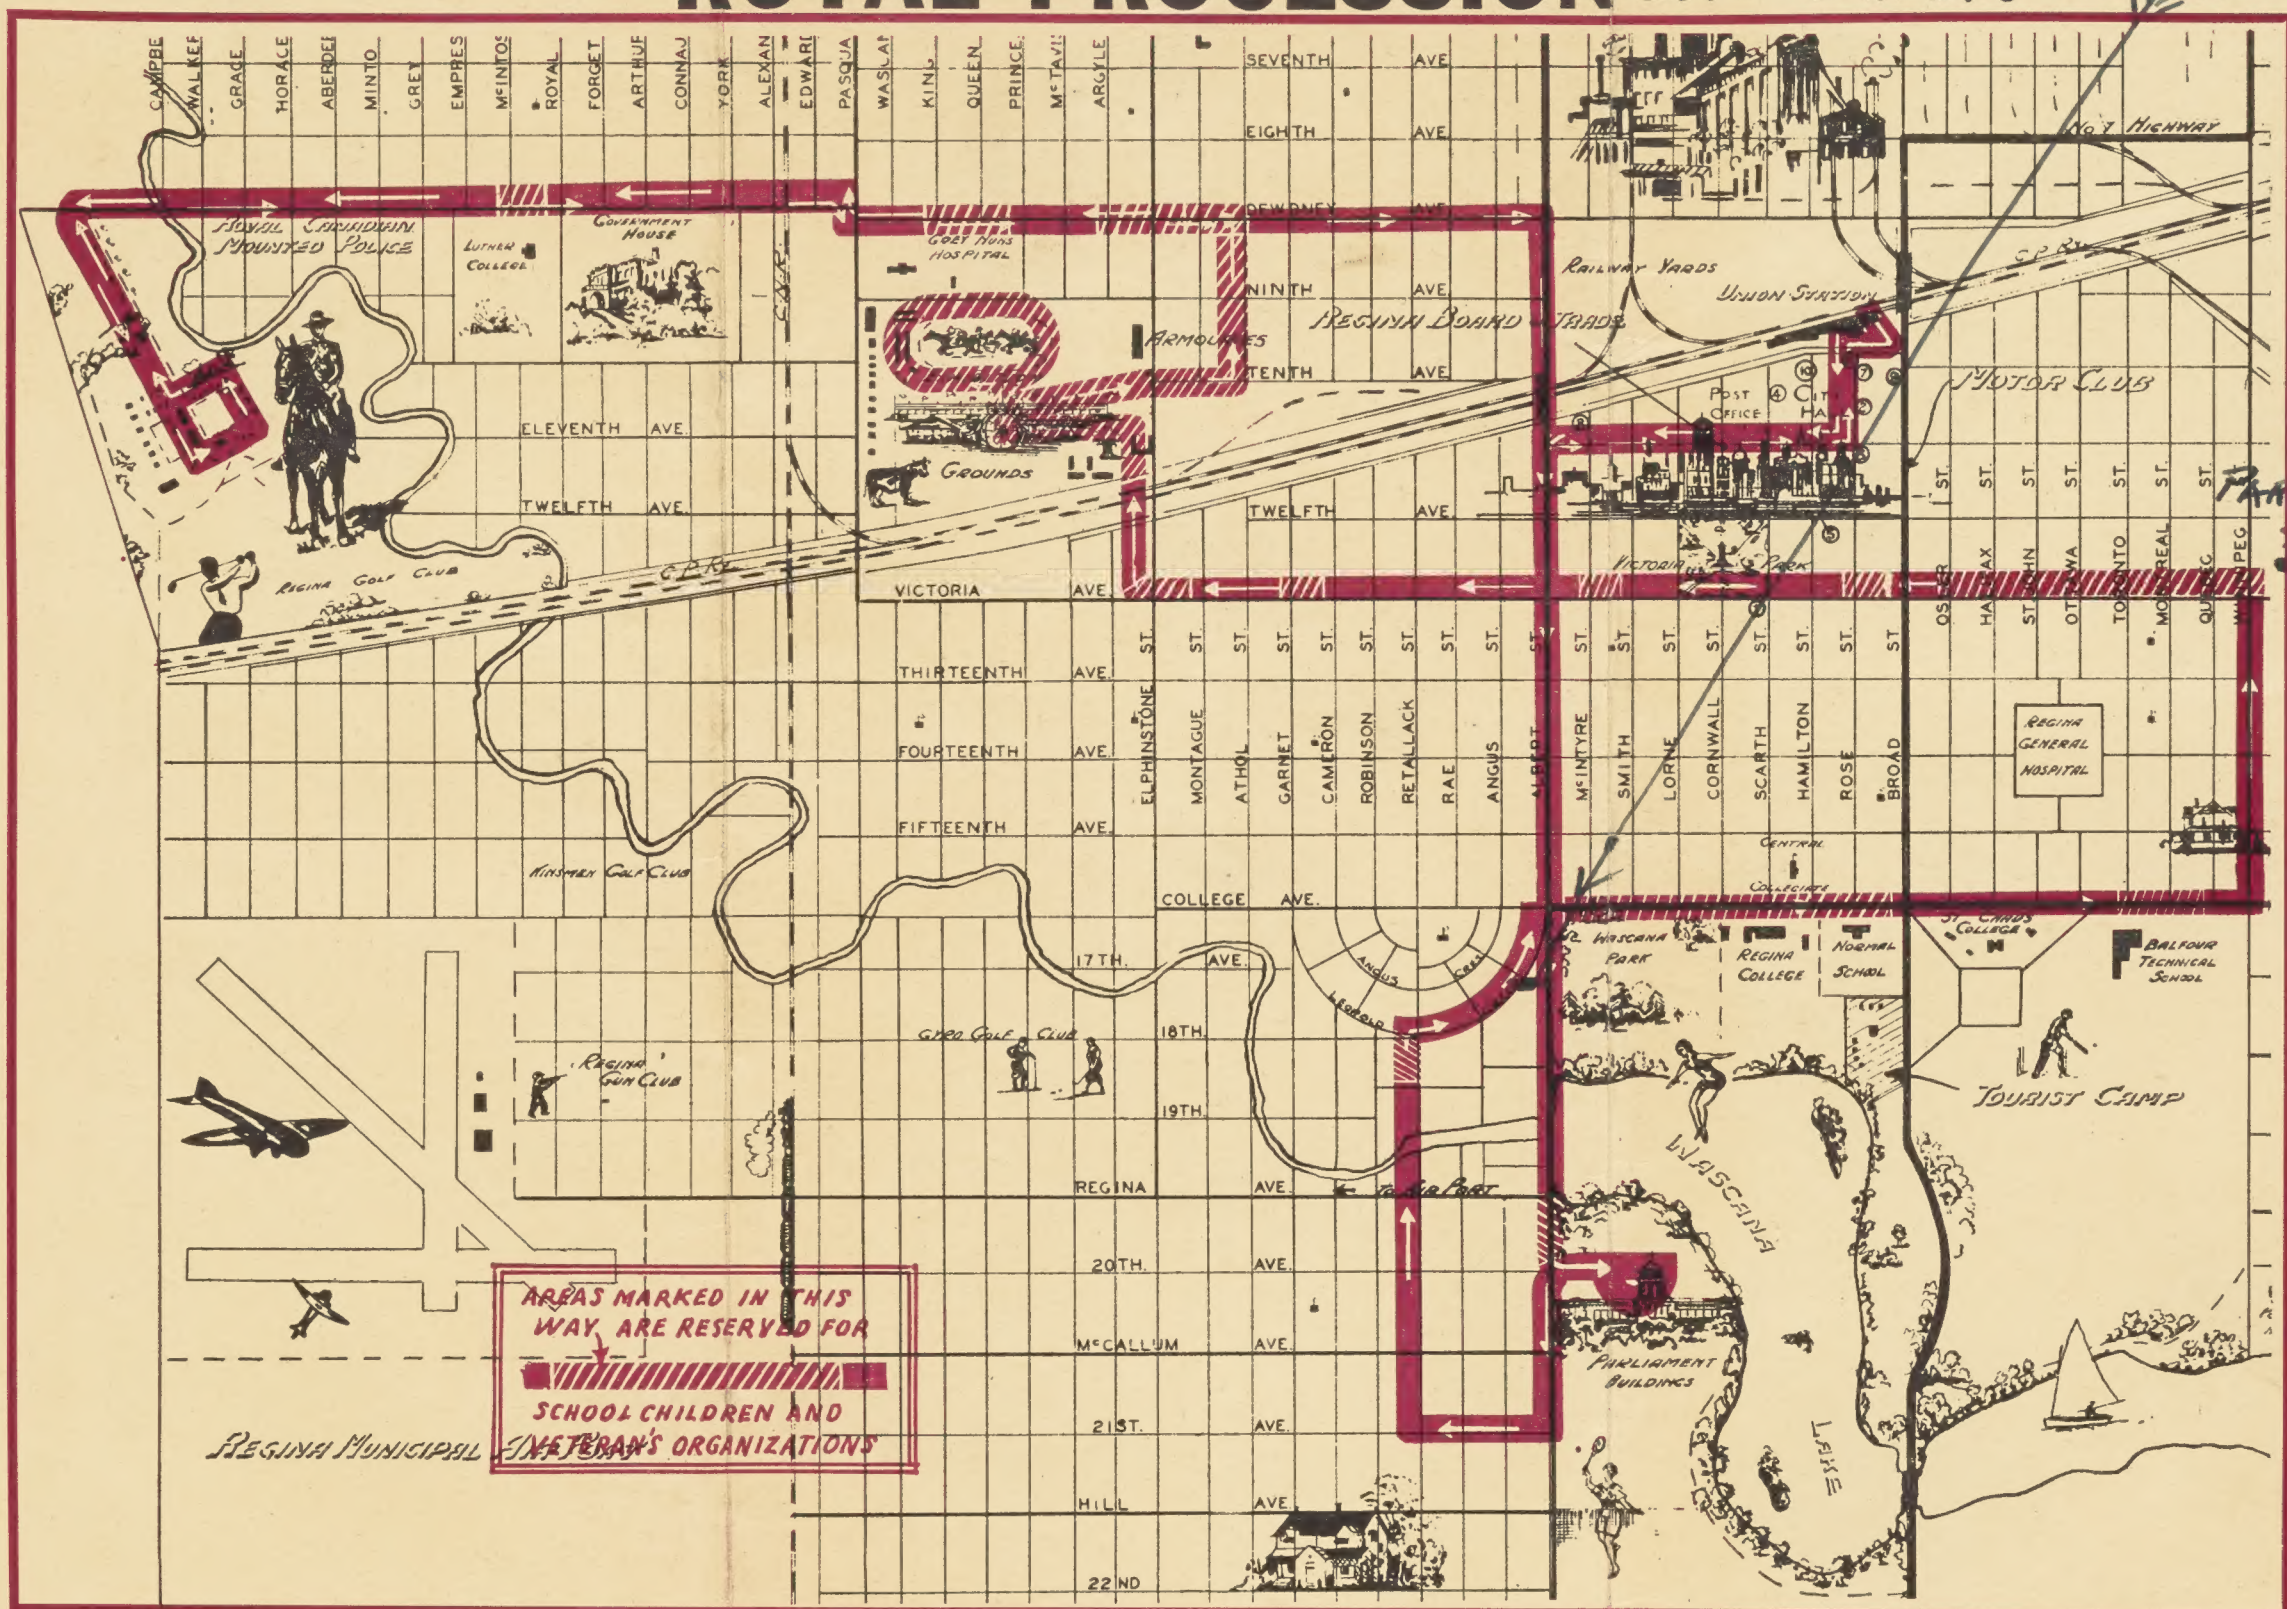

MAY 24 and MAY 25

Dramatic highlights of the western plains—the formation and early days of Saskatchewan—Indians in full war regalia—the grass dance—the ceremony of the pipe of the chiefs—national folk songs and dances from continental Europe—color—drama—songs—action!! The grandstand affords an unexcelled position from which to see Their Majesties on the afternoon of May 25, when they will participate in this spectacular event. Reserve your seats early.

PAGEANT AND FIREWORKS AT NIGHT

FOURTEEN MILE ROUTE FOR REGINA'S ROYAL PROCESSION

This is where we live. Our property is touching both streets so we get a view of Royal Party going and coming 10 and from Parliament St. DGS.

The route of the Royal Procession is here indicated for the convenience of the thousands who will throng the streets of Regina to greet the King and Queen on May 25. Portions of the route definitely reserved for school children and veterans' organizations are indicated by cross lines and will not be accessible to the general public. For instance, the area at the Exhibition grounds and extending to Dewdney Avenue has been reserved for rural school children. Only adults holding reserved seats on the grandstand for the Pageant will have access to the Exhibition grounds on the afternoon of May 25. Advance reservations for grandstand seats at $1.00 each may be made by remitting to the Royal Visit Committee, Regina, Saskatchewan. Ticket holders will be assured an ideal location from which to greet Their Majesties and to see the Pageant. In the following itinerary, all times given are Regina Fast Time, one hour ahead of Mountain Standard Time. The Royal Party will arrive at the C.P.R. station at 1.30 p.m., arriving at the City Hall via Rose St. at 1.50 p.m. Leaving the City Hall at 2.05 p.m. they will proceed along 11th Avenue and Albert Street and arrive at the Parliament Buildings at 2.20 p.m. Their Majesties will leave the Parliament Buildings at 3.05 p.m. proceeding to the R.C.M.P. barracks via the following route; Albert St. south to 21st, Retallack, Leopold Crescent, College Avenue, Winnipeg street, Victoria avenue, Elphinstone street, Exhibition grounds, Tenth avenue, Athol street and Dewdney avenue, arriving at the R.C.M.P. barracks at 4.15 p.m. Leaving the barracks at 4.45 p.m. the route to the station will be via Dewdney avenue, Albert street, Eleventh avenue, Rose street. Leaving the station at 6.30 p.m. the route to Government House will be Rose street, Victoria avenue, Albert street and Dewdney avenue. Their Majesties will leave Government House at 8.40 p.m. via Dewdney avenue, Albert street, Victoria avenue, Rose or Broad street and will arrive at the station at 8.55 p.m.

HUGE AIR SHOW-MAY 26

Never before, in western Canada, will such a galaxy of aerial talent have been assembled. Scores of American and Canadian pilots will fly to Regina to participate in this exciting show. American Army Squadrons, Royal Canadian Air Force Squadrons, fleets of modern planes from the great American Aeronautical Associations and Aircraft manufacturing companies will be present. A fortune in aircraft will be paraded for your inspection and entertainment.

Topping all other thrills will be the spectacular performance of Capt. Art Davis and his All American Aces, America's most famous troupe of dare-devil pilots. See their trio aerobatics, their amazing spins, loops, turns and formations. See them in a demonstration of accuracy flying; in ribbon cutting; balloon breaking; flying through a wall of fire; the "Kiss of Death", in which Capt. Davis picks a flag from the wing of a plane, using the wing of his own plane to do so! This portion of the show is concluded by Charlie Zmuda, the human glider! Zmuda leaps from a plane 10,000 feet in the air, using the bat-like wings to guide and keep him aloft as he swoops to the earth, completing many difficult manoeuvres! All Capt. Davis' planes are equipped for sky writing and all stunts are outlined with smoke! It's going to be a tremendous show, a super climax to three days of thrills! Mail Order reservations may be made by writing Royal Visit Committee, Regina, Sask. A limited number of reserved seats are available at $1.00 each. Rush tickets 25c. GET YOURS NOW.

INTERNATIONAL BOXING TOURNAMENT - MAY 24

And yet another all-star attraction for the visitors' entertainment! The Olympic Boxing and Wrestling Club, together with Regina's Rough-rider Rugby Club, are sponsoring a big championship boxing card, featuring Montana State Champions versus Canadian and Saskatchewan Champions! You will see 44 rounds of real fighting, in Regina Stadium at the Exhibition grounds. The International Boxing Tournament will be held on the evening of May 24, the day preceding the Royal Visit. Reserved seats for this outstanding event (ringside $1.10, reserved 80c.) may be obtained from the mail order box office, Smile Hat Shop, Scarth St., Regina, Saskatchewan. Rush seats at 55c. will be sold at the door on the evening of the tournament. Ensure choice seats make your mail order reservations in advance.

BE SURE TO VISIT THE

CARNIVAL

You'll have lots of fun at the great outdoor Carnival to be held in the Exhibition grounds on May 23, 24 and 25. Join the revelers! Play the carnival games, Bingo, Pop-in, The Derby, Mousetrap, Hoop-la, Ring the Bottle, Miss "Q", Farmer Brown, Six Balls, Topsy Turvy, and countless others, with a bewildering assortment of beautiful prizes to be won! Dance to the music of one of Regina's finest orchestras. Enjoy to the full the hot-dogs and lemonade! No admission charge to grounds.

SPECTACULAR FIREWORKS DISPLAY

Following the great Pageant on the evening of May 25th

BAND OF THE

Royal Canadian Mounted Police

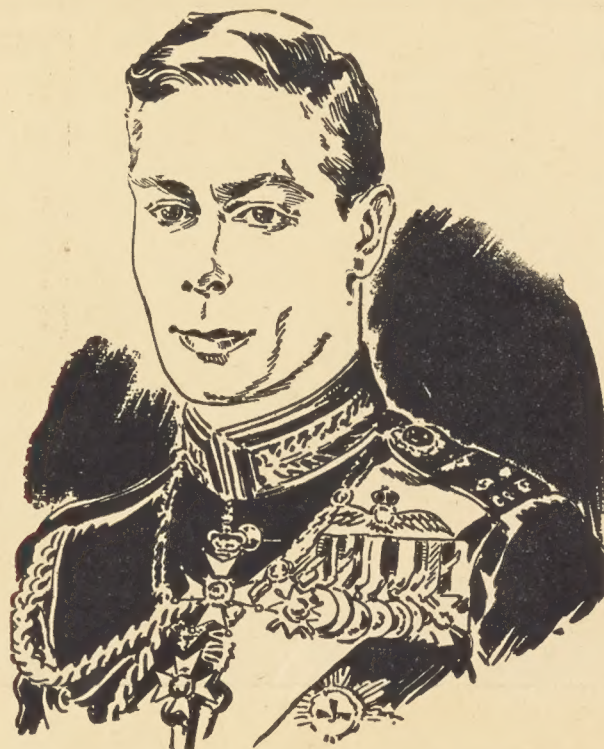

The new band of this famous force will give a band concert at the great Air Show on the afternoon of May 25. Mounties will assist in patrolling the grounds at the Air Port.

Regina Dons Gala Dress for Historic Occasion

*Their Most Gracious
Majesties*

KING GEORGE VI
QUEEN ELIZABETH

For the first time in history a reigning monarch and his Queen will visit Canada. Regina, the capital city of Saskatchewan, is preparing to welcome Their Majesties in royal manner. Over 100,000 visitors are expected to swell the population and for them Regina will don festive attire. Lavish street decorations featuring the royal colors, symbols of royalty and triumphal arches will transform the route of the fourteen mile procession. Business houses, public buildings and private homes will vie in splendor of decoration. Souvenir medals, buttons, flags and novelty mementos will be worn by citizen and visitor.

It is an event without precedent in Saskatchewan's history, but Regina is prepared. The Royal Visit Committee, through its executive, committee chairmen and committees, working together with private groups, is making all arrangements necessary for the comfort and well being of visitors.

Join in Regina's welcome to King George VI and Queen Elizabeth. Come to Regina for the three day celebration, May 24, 25 and 26. Participate in this historic event—it will be a once-in-a-lifetime occasion.

Accommodation

Overnight accommodation for visitors to Regina has been arranged as follows: HOTELS—limited space in Regina, hotels situated within one hour's drive from Regina have been listed. PRIVATE HOMES—hundreds of Reginans have listed available space at moderate rates. CAMPING GROUNDS—several sites have been reserved (equip yourself for camping if possible). TRAILERS—special locations are being provided. PUBLIC BUILDINGS—auditoriums, etc., will be available with palliasses supplied at small fee; visitors desiring this accommodation should bring blankets. As a general precaution, and especially where reservations have not been made in advance visitors should come supplied with blankets. INFORMATION DEPOTS and guide service will be stationed within the city limits on all main roads, and at train and bus depots. Stop at these stations for general information, accommodation and guidance. Reservations should be made in advance if at all possible. Address requests to: Accommodation, Royal Visit Committee, Regina, Saskatchewan. State kind of accommodation desired and for what period. A second choice should be named in case the first is no longer available. There is no charge for this service.

Rural School Children

Groups of children should be supervised by at least one adult for every twenty children. Overnight shelter will be provided for those groups who find it impossible to return home the same day, PROVIDING SUFFICIENT NOTICE IS GIVEN, but it will be necessary to bring bedding with children. No meals will be served, nor will there be facilities for cooking. Milk, bread and staple foods will be supplied at usual prices. Hot water will be available. All visiting children will congregate at the exhibition grounds, where ample space has been set aside to ensure children a good view of the Royal Procession. Guides will be assigned, and will remain with the children during their visit, giving assistance to those in charge of the group. First aid facilities have been arranged and entertainment will be provided preceding and following the Royal Procession. Parking space will be available near the exhibition grounds. Special trains at reduced fares will be operated by the railways. Consult your local or nearest railway agent, for full particulars. The Royal Train will arrive in Regina at 1.30 p.m. (Regina fast time). All visiting groups of children should be at the exhibition grounds by not later than 12 o'clock noon, fast time. Admission to the grounds, parking space, overnight accommodation and other facilities will be provided free. You are invited to consult the Rural School Children Committee, Royal Visit Committee, Regina, Sask., for such additional information as you may require.